NPS Announces Annual Millbrook Days Festival, September 14 and 15

BUSHKILL, PA- Autumn is approaching and that means it is time for the annual Millbrook Days folklife festival. This year's event, celebrating 19th century rural life, will be held on Saturday, September 14 and Sunday, September 15 at Millbrook Village, New Jersey, a part of the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area. Millbrook Days will be held rain or shine, from 10 am. to 4 pm each day. Admission is free. The festival is jointly sponsored by the National Park Service and the Millbrook Village Society.

Millbrook Village comes alive with the sights, sounds and smells of country life in an earlier time. Costumed volunteers and park staff will demonstrate 19th century trades, crafts, and home and garden chores. The festival also features old-time children's games and live, traditional music. Food for purchase will not be available this year, but there will be plenty of spots to enjoy a picnic lunch.

Free parking and shuttle service are available. The shuttle buses will provide transportation from the Watagate, Turtle Beach and Silvie Meadow parking sites to Millbrook Village from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day of the event.

Millbrook is located 12 miles north of I-80 on Old Mine Road (Exit 1) in New Jersey. For further information, call Park Headquarters on weekdays at 570 426 2452 or visit the park's website www.nps.gov/dewa
